Warner's Fashions

just as there is a fashion for dresses, there is a fashion for corsets. The dress is the outward expression, but the corset is the hidden cause, and the daintiest dress hangs limp and shapeless if the corset is not in harmony with fashion's lines.

If your corset is a Warner's, you are assured that your figure style is right.

Every Warner is kept "up to the minute" in style. Your merchant has no Warner corset that is not in keeping with the season's dress.

OF COURSE THEY ARE COMFORTABLE—We do not recognize one type of figure only, but every type of form, and each design is tested on a living model. We guarantee YOUR Warner's to YOU not to rust, not to break, not to tear, and to Wear, to Wear, and to Wear.

Are you ready for Spring? It is time—Warner's designs are out and YOU can buy YOUR corset now.

Do you like a Brassiere?—Warner's Brassieres supplement the low bust corset of today—dainty and perfect fitting, they are Warner quality throughout. That is why they are so pretty and fit so well.

ROTARY SNOW PLOW TO CLEAR THE ROAD

Heavy Work Ahead on Short Line, According to Assistant General Manager.

The big rotary snow plow will start to clear the road to Yellowstone park over the Oregon Short Line tomorrow, according to E. C. Manson, assistant general manager for the company. Speaking of the work, Mr. Manson said yesterday:

W. R. Armstrong, superintendent of the Montana division of the road, will have charge of the work, which will last from five to seven days. He will take with him a bridge gang, gang of snow shovelers and boarding outfit and will see nothing but snow until he gets through. Last year I was with the gang and we got through in five days, but from reports the snow is heavier now. Telephone reports say that the snow is from about eight feet deep on the level at Yellowstone, and there are some places along the route where it will be twenty feet deep. The reason for clearing the snow now is to have the track dry and clean when we are ready to use it in the spring. The road from Ashton to Yellowstone, in the distance of fifty-six miles, is to be cleared.

EPHRAIM BOY AGAIN ENLISTS IN THE NAVY

OLSEN PLAYS PART OF SHERLOCK HOLMES

James Olsen, well-known salesman, will probably be known hereafter as "Sherlock Holmes" Olsen. In view of the fact that he played the part of Conan Doyle's famous creation for a brief space of time yesterday afternoon. Upon the suggestion of Manager A. J. Davis and the assistance of fellow salesman, Mr. Olsen consented to play the role, in behalf of the Rex theater, but later he attempted to resign, upon the ground that he might hereafter be known as "Sherlock," whereas he had no desire to masquerade as a detective. In the meantime, however, a number of Olsen's friends got onto the fact that he was playing the role and he was abundantly "recognized." Manager Davis handed out the tickets, which the discoverers of "Sherlock" Olsen called for and everything is now lovely.

WIRELESS NOW REACHES GUAM

SAN FRANCISCO, March 1.—The lonely little island of Guam, far down in the South Pacific, which fell to the United States during the Spanish-American war, when its Spanish governor thought the shots fired at him by American battleships were friendly salutes and took it at last "linked up" with the rest of the world by wireless.

Since the island became an American possession, the United States troops stationed there have occupied the most isolated post in the world. News from the outside came only at rare intervals when the army transports swarmed out of the regular course to Manila. But now it is different. When the transport "Thetis," which arrived today, passed the islands at a distance of 1700 miles a day ago, the wireless operator picked up the station on the island, which sent back a happy response.
